FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fredericktown Department to Hold Open House

FREDERICKTOWN – The members of the Fredericktown Community Fire District are holding an open house and celebration for the arrival of Engine 419 to the department at 139 Columbus Road in Fredericktown. The event that will be held June 9, 2007 will kick off with the presentation of the new truck at 10am and continue until 2pm. The day was planned to promote the arrival of the new truck and show the public some of the services that are provided to the citizens of the community.

Events throughout the day include; truck and station tours, extrication demonstration with the “jaws-of-life”, fire extinguisher demonstrations, fire prevention giveaways, photo gallery, and weather permitting Medflight will be at the station. The day will have numerous other events and several prizes will be given away.

If you’ve ever wondered where those lights and sirens are going and who the men and women that protect the Fredericktown Community are, join us on June 9.
